4. Who or what did God's fire burn in Numbers chapter 11?

5. Explain what the two silver trumpet blasts signaled.

6. Why does Numbers 10:9 say to sound the alarm with trumpets (clap, sing, and shout praises to God) before facing an enemy?

7. How do you think the enemy feels when he hears God’s people blowing silver trumpets or clapping, singing, and shouting praises to God?

8. Comment on some of your experiences that involved moving with God.

10. Improve your communication skills by summarizing this chapter in twenty-five meaningful words or less.

Dear God, I love and appreciate You because:

PRAYER REQUESTS/POTENTIAL MIRACLES:

“I will answer them before they even call to me.
While they are still talking about their needs,
I will go ahead and answer their prayers!”
(Isaiah 65:24 NLT)

Answers: Chapter 8

1-2. (Opinion)

3. Fire came out from before the Lord and snuffed them out. (Opinion) God gave instruction regarding how things were to be done. (p.75)

“He, that being often reprov'd hardeneth his neck, shall suddenly be destroyed, and that without remedy” (Proverbs 29:1 KJV).

4. It burned to a crisp the bellyachers and gripers when they were gathered on the outskirts of the camp. (p.76)

5. Two silver trumpets signaled the people to move with God. The camp stopped when God stopped. (pp. 77-79) Silver trumpets called the congregation and directed the camp's movement. They signaled when it was time to come, and when it was time to go. (One trumpet called the leaders. Two trumpets called the congregation.) (p.78)

6. God promised to save them from opponents—if they would sound the alarm—before confronting an enemy. For New Testament believers, this means to clap, sing, and shout praises to God (in addition to sounding a trumpet (or shofar?), before facing an enemy. (p. 80) Blessing the Lord, instead of bad-mouthing the enemy, brings victory.
